Yesterday arrived the Mail from France.

Paris, March 11.

THE 5th Instant being the first Sunday in Lent, the King was at the publick Celebration of Mass in his Chapel at Versailles. On the 7th the Baron de Montigny, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Wirtemberg, had his first publick Audience of the King, being introduced by the Count de Melay, Introducer of Ambassadors, who waited upon the Envoy at his House in this City, and conducted him to Versailles in one of his Majesty's Coaches, where being treated by the Officers of his Majesty's Household after his Audience was over, he was re conducted to this City with the usual Ceremonies. Your Poll and Interest are desired for

EDWARD BELLAMY, Esq;

Alderman and Fishmonger,

to be one of your Sheriffs for the Remainder of this Year; being truly affected to His most Excellent Majesty King GEORGE, His Illustrious Family, and our most happy Constitution in Church and State; and from whom his Fellow Citizens may justly expect the Preservation of their Real Rights and Privileges, in every Matter committed to his Care and Trust.

It is hoped the Citizens will in this Election discountenance the Proceedings of the late Sheriffs, which so manifestly tended to deprive them of their most Valuable Right to elect their own Magistrates, by the unwarrantable Declaration for Sir John Williams and Mr. Lockwood, against a Majority on the Poll.

N. B. This Gentleman was declared by the Sheriff to have a Majority of Hands in the Common Hall, notwithstanding the false Insinuation in the other Bills.

The Poll begins at Nine this Morning, and closes at Five in the Afternoon.

S I R. Friday March 6, 1723-4.

You are desired to meet several worthy Aldermen, Merchants, and other Eminent Citizens, this Morning, at Ten of the Clock, at Merchants-Taylors Hall in Thread-needle-Street, in order to go and Poll for

EDWARD BELLAMY, Esq;

Alderman and Fishmonger,

To be Sheriff of London and Middlesex for the remaining Part of the Year, in the Room of Sir Felix Feast, deceased.

There will be another Meeting this Day at the said Hall, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, for the Convenience of those Liverymen who can't attend there in the Morning.

N. B. The Poll will conclude on Saturday in the Afternoon; the Act of Common-Council directing that it must be finished in Three Days Time.

Friday, March 6, 1723-4.

The Liverymen of the City of London residing within the Liberties of Westminster, and the Dutchy and Places adjacent, are desired to meet several of their Fellow-Citizens at the Crown and Anchor Tavern, over-against St. Clement's Church in the Strand, this Day, at Ten in the Forenoon, to proceed in a Body to Guildhall, to Poll for

EDWARD BELLAMY, Esq;

Alderman and Fishmonger.

London, March 6, 1723-4.

Notwithstanding the Bodies from Vintners-Hall and from Cripplegate Yesterday for Sir John Williams, the Poll stood thus:

Edward Bellamy, Esq; Alderman. 446

Sir John Williams 597

It is not doubted but the Bodies this Day from Merchant-

Taylors Hall, Southwark, Westminster, and Wapping, will make a great Majority for Mr. Edward Bellamy, this Evening.

London, March 5, 1723-4.

S I R. Your Poll and Interest are desired for

Sir JOHN WILLIAMS, Kt.

Alderman and Turkey-Merchant, to be one of your Sheriffs for the Remainder of the present Year, He being a Gentleman of known Loyalty to His Majesty King GEORGE, and an Eminent Assertor of the Rights and Liberties of his Fellow-Citizens.

Note, The Poll will be closed on Saturday next. At the closing of the Books last Night, the Poll stood thus:

Sir John Williams 607

Mr. Bellamy 445

Friday, March 6, 1723-4.

For preventing Omissions for the future, the Commissioners for Managing His Majesty's Stamp-Duties have thought fit to give Notice, That the Times limited, by the Acts of Parliament in that Case made, for the Payment of the Rates or Duties on Monies given, paid, or contracted for with Clerks and Apprentices, are ONE MONTH after the Dates of such Indentures or Contracts as are executed within the Limits of the Bills of Mortality, and TWO MONTHS after the Dates of such Indentures or Contracts as are executed elsewhere throughout the Kingdom of Great-Britain. And that on Neglect of Payment within the respective Times above-mention'd, every Master or Mistress so neglecting, incurs a Penalty of Fifty Pounds, with Costs of Suit; and the Clerk or Apprentice is made incapable of exercising the intended Trade or Employment, or of being made Free of any City, Corporation, or Company; and the Indentures and Contracts are also in such Case void and of no Effect. The said Commissioners do further give Notice, that in Case the full Sum be not inserted in such Indentures or Contracts, the Master or Mistress thereby forfeits Double the Sum which he or she really receives; And that all Persons neglecting or refusing to comply with the Terms of the said Acts of Parliament, will be prosecuted for such Neglect or Refusal.
